PALMETTO CLUB BANQUET

At The Prince George—A Notable Occasion—Fine Program And Good Cheer.

WIT, TOASTS, CHEW, SMILE.

The second banquet of the Palmetto Club has come and gone. It was a delightful occasion; a pronounced success viewed from every standpoint, and those responsible for its success should feel immensely gratified that the event should have passed in the blaze of glory, which characterized the event in every detail.

The club women were exquisitely gowned, and were in their finest fettle the gentlemen guests bore themselves hardily, smiled blandly, and vied with one another in chivalry of deportment and extemporary speech.

The sweet strains of music which wereushed out over the assembly were both soulful and inspiring; the decorations were most tasteful, artistic and elicited exclamations of pleasure from all; the festal board was all that the most exacting could ask.

To say that The Prince George was fully equal to the demands of the occasion would be high praise for the Messrs. and Mesdames Hillyard and Holroyd, the executives, the menu, the service, the setting—every essential, every little detail was looked after and all went merry as a marriage bell.

As a sort of resume: the evening was ideal, a full moon, a hearing atmosphere; ladies out in force; a generous spring of water, an evening garb; the club colors, green and yellow predominated, "Palmetto Club" artistically littered overlooking banquet hall; music by the Prince George Orchestra; toasts numerous and witty, the toastmistress alert, gracious and in happy command —everybody happy.

C. G. WIGGINS BREAKS HIS LEG.

ALSO SPRAINS HIS ANKLE.

C. G. Wiggins, of Second avenue, was so unfortunate as to break his right leg and also suffer a bad sprain of the ankle of the same leg while engaged in clearing away some dead vines from a tree in the rear of his residence, Wednesday morning.

It seems that Mr. Wiggins was endeavoring to remove an unsightly dead vine which was clinging to the top of a palmetto tree. He had taken hold of a loose end near the ground and finding the vine still strongly attached to the tree he ground his right foot deeply into the soil, in order to make a strong pull, when suddenly the vine gave way and caused him to fall in an awkward position on his right leg, wrenching the ankle joint and breaking the small bone above.

Mr. Wiggins called for help and a neighbor, and a colored man who was working in the vicinity, went to his assistance and carried him into the house.

Fortunately surgical aid was close at hand, as Dr. J. D. West and wife, of Hopedale, Ohio, are rooming in the house with Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins. Dr. West at once set the broken bone and made Mr. Wiggins as comfortable as possible and he is getting along very nicely. Dr. West says the broken bone will probably give Mr. Wiggins but little trouble; the sprained ankle, however, is a more serious matter and it may be some time before he has complete use of the injured member.

Mr. Wiggins has been a hotel man and two years ago bought the property on Second avenue which he now occupies. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins are from Chicago and are here for rest and recreation during the winter months.

Miss Maggie Morgan Again in Fourth Place—Balance of Vote Was Small.

The last vote in the Bush & Safford piano contest discloses no startling facts, except that the Daytona High School is further ahead of the Halifax Rifles than ever. The only change in standing in the contest is in Daytona where Miss Maggie Morgan passes Miss Jean Frances Conrad and goes into fourth place. By the way some of these individuals are gaining on the leaders. Perhaps organizations it looks like there might be something doing before the contest ends in March.

Outside of Daytona, Wilsons Opera House passes the hundred mark in the race and now has nearly twice the vote of its nearest competitor.

All other candidates save those named to have taken a roll, the vote being lighter than usual.

Indications in Daytona are for a lightening up of the leaders in a few more counts, and as soon as that happens there will be some lively doings.

Jack Frost Lays His Icy Fingers On Florida's Would-Be Rival.

To read the California papers one would think the millennium is in full swing, that sunshine is perpetual, flowers and fruits the most fragrant and the sweetest in every man's yard and doorway, Jack Frost a myth and rain only upon order of the weather department, the department having entire supervision, Jupiter Pluvius having jurisdiction only in Florida.

Reading a California paper he got a line on her climate, temperature, humidity, rainfall, barometric readings, etc., would be like trying to gain a knowledge of marine life by observing the movements of a minnow swimming in a rain barrel.

Gen. S. Chanderlin has a letter from a prominent citizen of Ohio who has a beautiful Ridgewood home and who is spending the winter in California. This gentleman writes that they had had seven frosts for three successive nights, so far south as Los Angeles. Remember Daytonans he recently wrote that he and his family were longing for the balmy breezes and the genial Florida sunshine. It is a safe bet that there is one Buckeye who will be found in Daytona hereafter.

In some respects California is all right but she makes a great mistake in claiming a monopoly of certain things that it is Florida's prerogative to exploit exclusively Floridian.

A Beautiful Little Informal Reception, Where Speeches, Music and Good Things Go.

The fatty or more gastric and digestive foods where good fortune it was to be at the Schmidt Hotel last evening had a thoroughly enjoyable evening, and one not soon to be forgotten.

The Schmidt Hotel has a goodly number of guests for so early in the season, and with two such fun-makers at the head of the genial native hustled and Colonel Sidebottom it is obvious that something was doing when they put on record.

It was a delayed New Year's party, and partook of all the good cheer characteristic of the Fatherland New Year. There were also a number of specialties, all appropriate and all favored with interest, and especially were Schmidt and Sidebottom themselves and apt to the occasion of their jokes.

A very vociferous hitch was spent during the evening, and good cheer reigned in plenty.

Mrs. A. H. Schmidt entertained throughout with a number of choice selections on the piano, which were most enjoyed.

Everybody pronounced the occasion most decided pleasure and expressed a hope that they may happen around in due time to-morrow.

CLOSE CALL FOR LIFE AT INLET.

Harry Arnold Is Caught In An Accident In Which He Escapes Narrowly.

RESCUE RELUCTANTLY RENDERED.

* * *

Harry Arnold, who lives near the Inlet, was the victim Tuesday of a rather peculiar accident coupled with an exhibition of fearlessness that is seldom seen and hard to believe.

Mr. Arnold, together with his wife, were out in his boat a fifty foot launch, when a large one or more came along. The sea being rather high the large one formed him a tow, which he accepted. Mrs. Arnold went on board the launch and Mr. Arnold remained in the launch.

All went well until the latter broke without warning causing the launch to make several complete revolutions, finally coming to rest bottom up.

Mr. Arnold was in the cabin when the trouble occurred and it was only by the merest chance that he was able to break through a cabin window and get out before the boat went under the water. When he came to the surface the large one was gone, paying no heed to him whatever. He was fortunate enough to grab a life preserver that was floating near him and this one act saved his life.

In the meantime the launch had gone on its way, the engineer evidently not knowing that Mr. Arnold was trying to get back to dock for the night, saying, "He evidently had business of his own and it is no use." It only turned back after Mrs. Arnold had nearly gone wild and was about to throw herself overboard. When they returned the captain and Mrs. Arnold were gone, a new boat and another Mr. Arnold in the rank of some, he being about exhausted.

Mr. Arnold is recovering and hopes to have the launch afloat, which was new and recently built at a cost of $1,500.

SEANCES ARE HELD BY SPIRITUALISTS.

Much Local Interest Aroused Over Spirit Communications With Departed.

DAYTONIANS ALL WORKED UP.

* * *

A wave of spiritualistic interest is sweeping Daytona. Several seances have been held 29 Beach street, and some quite remarkable revelations and communication with departed spirits are reported.

A few days ago a well known "medium," a medium of more than statewide reputation from the Lake Helen spiritualists' camp, came to Daytona, and as is customary when this well-known medium arrived, spiritualism took on renewed interest.

When the word was passed around that a seance would be held at a specified hour at a certain hour, and the visiting medium would establish spiritualistic communications with the spirit world all the available room was soon occupied, and many sought admittance who could not appropriate it.

The meeting created great interest, and those of the spiritualistic faith have no doubt in the world but that communication was established with many Daytonians, some of whom long since quit this earthly habernade of clay.

First one form and then another appeared, through the interposition of the celebrated medium, to hold communication with departed friends and loved ones, and in some instances the communication is reported to have been most satisfactory and wonderful.

But this is a subject and a theme worthy the deepest brain, the nicely disciplined judgment and the most tactful proclivities of a master artist, and when a plain, blunt, matter-of-fact, every day reporter of hum-drum, prosaic happenings of earth from his legitimate province and steps over into the realms of the spiritual, the psychological, the metaphysical, the occult, or science of things metaphysical, he is transcending the legitimate sphere of usefulness, to ignore not his orange in the millennium. To the layman, to the spiritual citizen with a conservative taste as to Beach street scenery is beneficial, it is obtruding. Unless you are eagerly sick of your boring, unless you have learned well to hand yourself to the world as you may fit it up at the time.

Perhaps the reportorial letter Post is after more Editor Fitzgerald is also of the opinion of Tallahassee, if he will not be likely cut the article.

Beekman will be in Daytona Beach from the 15th to the 20th of each month, and can be consulted at the office of Dr. Beekman & Son, Jacksonville, Fla., while at a gathering of the professional class around the fireplace, the writer is receiving fanciful visions from his physician and from the contemplation of the logs of which he is a member.

CLOSE CALL FOR LIFE AT INLET.

Harry Arnold Is Caught In An Accident In Which He Escapes Narrowly.

RESCUE RELUCTANTLY RENDERED.

Harry Arnold, who lives near the Inlet, was the victim Tuesday of a rather peculiar accident coupled with an exhibition of heartlessness that is seldom seen and hard to believe.

Mr. Arnold, together with his wife, were out in his boat a fifty foot launch, when a large orange barge came along. The sea being rather high the barge offered him a tow, which he accepted. Mrs. Arnold went on board the barge and Mr. Arnold remained on the launch.

All went well until the hawser broke without warning causing the launch to make several complete revolutions, finally sinking in about forty feet of water.

Mr. Arnold was in the cabin when the trouble occurred and it was only by the merest chance that he was able to break through a cabin window and get out before the boat went down for good. When he came to the surface the barge was far away, paying no heed to him whatever. He was fortunate enough to grab a life preserver that was floating near him and this was all that saved his life.

In the meantime the barge had gone on its way, the captain refusing to go back to look for the lost man, saying "He's drowned by this time any way and it is no use." He only turned back after Mrs. Arnold had nearly gone wild and was about to throw herself overboard. When they returned the captain and Mrs. Arnold put out in a row boat and rescued Mr. Arnold in the nick of time, he being about exhausted.

Mr. Arnold is recovering and hopes to be able to float his boat, which was new and recently built at a cost of $800.

SEANCES ARE HELD BY SPIRITUALISTS.

Much Local Interest Aroused Over Spirit Communications With Departed.

DAYTONIANS ALL WORKED UP.

A wave of spiritualistic interest is sweeping Daytona. Several seances have been held up Beach street, and some quite remarkable revelations and communication with departed spirits are reported.

A few days ago a well-known "medium," a medium of more than State-wide reputation from the Lake Helen Spiritualists' camp, came to Daytona, and as is customary when this well-known medium arrived, spiritualism took on renewed interest.

When the word was passed around that a seance would be held at a specified place at a certain hour, and the visiting medium would establish spiriualistic communications with the spirit world all the available room was soon occupied, and many sought admittance who could not squeeze in.

The meeting created great interest, and those of the spiritualistic faith have no doubt in the world but that communication was established with many Daytonians, some of whom long since quit this earthly tabernacle of clay.

First one then another was permitted, through the interposition of the celebrated medium, to hold communication with departed friends and loved ones, and in some instances the communication is reported to have been most satisfactory and wonderful.

But this is a subject and a theme worthy the strongest brain, the nicely discriminating judgment and the most tactful pen-touches of a master artist, and when a plain, blunt, matter-of-fact, every day reporter of hum-drum, prosaic happenings departs from his legitimate province and steps over into the realms of the spiritual, the psychological, the metaphysical, the occult, or talks of things necrological, he is transcending his legitimate sphere of usefulness, and is pretty apt to swamp in the unfathomable. To the layman, to the average citizen with a conservative make up the Beach street seeance is befuddling, it is obfuscating. Unless you are mighty sure of your footing, unless you have yourself well in hand you'd better look out or you may fetch up at the "bug house."

Perhaps the reporter would better "cut it out" here—Editor Fitzgerald is absent on business at Tallahassee; if he were here he would likely cut the article out entire.

Dr. Beekman Ill.

The friends of Dr. D. D. Beekman will be sorry to learn that he is ill. He was taken ill very suddenly Wednesday evening on this side while at a gathering and reports of his condition since are not encouraging. He was taken to his home, on the peninsula and is receiving careful attention from his physicians and from the brethren of the lodges of which he is a member.

Saved by a Photograph.

A very remarkable incident occurred at Rio de Janeiro.

A passenger on board one of the large liners took a photograph of the harbor. It included a small yacht which had sailed in the morning with two men in her, but returned in the evening with one only. The survivor said his companion had fallen overboard, but his statement was not believed. He was tried and sentenced to death. The matter had by this time come to the ears of the photographer, who remembered that the picture had been taken on the day of the "other" fog accident and that the scene embraced a yacht. On examining the print more carefully he noticed a small speck on the sail and in order to determine what it was had an enlargement made. It proved to be the figure of a man falling. It was shown to the authorities at once, and the condemned man was released.

Tropical Oysters.

"Talk about the oyster opener pointed to a brownish smear upon a Saddle Rock object.

"Some fool," said he, "has been trying to fatten up a batch of Saddle Rocks with cornmeal. You might as well try to fatten Rockies with cornmeal beef hash. But it is a common error to believe that cornmeal or oatmeal will fatten oysters. I continually find roosters with their shells stained with those grains. It makes me laugh. As a matter of fact, there is no such thing as fattening oysters. All you can do is to feed them up with water, precisely the same as water swells a sponge. You put them in fresh water, which, being less dense than the soft parts are accustomed to, by the principle of osmosis penetrates and distends their tissues—gives them, as you might say, dropsy. For my part, I don't like fattened oysters."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The room will be moved to the front on a line with the opera house. What was formerly the rear room will be used by Jack Piggott as a meat shop and also be moved to the front. With the houses painted and the ground graded this will make a considerable improvement to the part delapidated appearance of the lot.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Jan 8—Frank Meyers, who has been in the circuit clerk's office at Atlanta for twenty-five years and is here with his wife spending a short vacation, returns to Atlanta Saturday. This is Mr. Meyers' first visit to Seabreeze and he is much pleased with the place. Mrs. Myers was here last winter

Mr. Pierson and charming daughter, Miss Winifred, arrived from Newark, N. Y., yesterday morning, and will spend the remainder of the season at Cherokee cottage on Halifax avenue. Mrs. and Miss Pierson will come down later.

Colonel A. F. Fleet has leased the Bernard cottage for the season. Mr. Fleet, manager of the well known Culver Military college of Culver, Indiana, and Mrs. Fleet, is here with him. Their two sons are expected to arrive today from Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruffin Mrs. Phillips and Mr Russell were the lucky fishermen on the pier yesterday. They brought home a catch of 65 fish and Mr. and Mrs. Ruffin both had the skill or good luck to hook two fish at one time.

Admiral Brooks, retired naval officer, wife and two daughters, arrived yesterday and are pleasantly located on Ocean boulevard. Mr. and Mrs Brooks are friends of Mr. and Mrs Orth.

F J Harpster and family, who have a bungalow on Palmetto avenue, are expected to arrive from Elyria, Ohio, today.

The McWilliams lot, adjoining the Wilmans opera house, has been leased by I. A. Miller. He is having it graded down and will fit up the rear room of the small building on it for a real estate office. The room will be moved to the front on a line with the opera house. What was formerly the rear room will be used by Jack Baggett as a meat shop and also be moved to the front. With the houses painted and the ground grassed this will make a considerable improvement to the past delapidated appearance of the lot.

B. Sherman is finally located in the wigwam on the beach. Tommie will again go on as bell boy at The Princess Issena a little later.

The Riddle.

Here is a strange riddle which we have never met before. It is sent us by a friend from Jhansi, India:

Divide 150 by 0. Add two-thirds of 10. So ends the riddle.

Here is the answer: CoLENSO.

C—100.
L—50.
EN—two-thirds of TEN.
SO—ends the riddle.—London Scraps.

Changeable Names.

Tom—Belle is a strange girl. She doesn't know the names of some of her best friends. Maud—That's nothing. Why, I don't even know what my own will be a year from now.—Boston Transcript.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 8—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pickert, of Melbourne, Mich., are expected to arrive today, and will locate in a cottage for the season. They are friends of Mrs. W. F Ayes.

Mr. and Mrs H. Butteroff, of Pennsylvania, arrived Wednesday and are pleasantly located at Surf Crest.

Mr and Mrs Vining, who have been spending some time with Mrs. Vining's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beach, left Monday for their home at Niagara, N. Y.

Mrs. Young and bright young daughter, Miss Virginia, were guests of Mr and Mrs. Beach on a three days river trip. They left Tuesday morning. Roscoe Beach went with them.

The H. G. Wilson Co., yesterday leased an apartment in the Phillips apartment house on Seabreeze avenue to Mrs. Hambrio and her daughter, Miss Hambric, of Georgetown, Ky.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Seaside Inn were as follows: I. Crouch, N. Crouch, Michigan; W. B. Carter, Atlanta; N. L. Beadford, Jacksonville.

Miss Mabryn Madison, who is here with her mother at J. L. Wilcox' cottage on Seabreeze avenue, returned yesterday afternoon from the pier with a catch of twenty-five blue fish, which as a first trial does pretty well.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreusch and Mrs. Reese made a pleasant party to the Inlet yesterday.

Messrs. Harrison, Seabreeze avenue, and Messrs. Ayes, Valley street, were out on a fishing cruise going as far as Spruce creek.

L. R Fickler and wife, recent arrivals from New York, have taken the upstairs apartments in the Smith apartment house on Valley street.

Price Never Changed.

The Rev. Simon Turple was an eloquent speaker, but he seemed to have a list of sermons which, when he once began, he went right through to the end and then started at the first sermon again, and so on.

A young man in the congregation was about to leave for South Africa, but the Sunday before he departed he attended the church service.

In the course of his lecture the minister used an illustration in which were the words, "A man can easily purchase two sparrows for threepence."

The young man, after being absent for about three years, returned and again on the first opportunity attended divine service. Strange to say, he heard the same narrative by the same minister, the phrase striking him most being about the "two sparrows for threepence."

At the close of the service the minister, in his courtesy, came and shook hands with the youth and, welcoming him back to his home, asked him if he noticed any changes about the place.

The young man, evidently quite unconcerned, replied, "Aye, man, there's two or three changes, but there's yin thing I can see—the price o' sparrows is aye at the same auld figger."—Glasgow News.

The Modern Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but will heed that it is a wonderful wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fly by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.
The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with mossy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and gull and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk scrooging upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their bumpers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.
The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from three extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the fresh winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ofttimes dense, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.
See the glistening hat of the great magnolia which nature has furnished as no artist's brush ever could, and the cabbage palms with their bunches of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely leafy arch the orange trees form, its climbing vines running riot in the trees are the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is world wonder for beauty.
Surpassing Beauty of Her Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more unduly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and so the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in color and appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"
It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that excite admiration, which they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and wealth of many that the exterior appearance that give a surprising charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another leader list.
Streets and Pavements the Best and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such it is fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lovely wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.
Men did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of carriage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways interesting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.
And so for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—whether between the electric and western was are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Will some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.
Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or one callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.
For every visitor with a spare "good bee" there is a hungry ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and grave into the next, cutting further, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where
Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And parting summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.
In one yard mass of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another a hibiscus is a mass of tall rose. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.
The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.
The Fastest Autos And The Finest Hot.
The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are beaten with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure azurine water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.
Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200 horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a 100-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breeze are free, the blue and aplenty and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have no desire in your wake sing for ride for the auto and bed and board.
This is an humble picture, it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

ORMOND
ORMOND, Jan. 7—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colby attended divine service at the Baptist church in Daytona on Sunday morning.
The ladies of the Y. I. A. gave an invitation to the gentlemen to be present at their rooms on Friday evening last, where a very pleasant entertainment was provided. The piano solos by Miss Ethel Francis, Miss Bessie Sawyer and Miss Margaret Shaw were all rendered and highly appreciated. It will present to say also the violin duet by Master Allen Shaw and Miss Margaret Shaw. Miss Emma Griffin, one of our winter tourists, gave a fine selection, "The Spire of St. Michael," showing great talent as an elocutionist. A fine collation was then served, consisting of all good things such as the ladies of Ormond know how to provide. Rev. G. A. Waldron officiated as toast master. The toasts for the evening were: "Women in the Church," responded to by Dr. Huntington of Springfield, Mass.; "Women in Politics," by Mayor Thurston, was well received; "Women in the Club," by John Adams Riley, was warmly appreciated; "Woman in Business," H. B. Shaw; "Woman in the Home," James Carnell; "Woman in Ormond," Prof. C. E. Orris. One hearty speech of the evening was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. James Carnell, who received the congratulations of their many friends upon the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage.
Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Pennell, mother and sister of G. A. Gaskin, have arrived. They were here two winters ago and are glad to get back to the sunny South.
George Moore is about to open up the Granada hotel. Glad to see the wheels begin again.
Frank Colby has a steam yacht in contemplation which he set to a job one year ago and which is now in full blown. He will be pleased to show it to any of his friends as it is quite a novelty for the time of year.
Dear Money and Cheapness.
In the eighteenth century there were no temperance societies or corals of any kind, but drinking and low living were very common. To be an "drink as a lord" was the height of human felicity. It was the age of "three bottle men," of many other forms of drinking songs. Even the clergy were not exempt from intemperance. There were certain districts where at Whitsuntide the church wardens were accustomed to buy two hogsheads of malt from the parishioners. This was brewed into strong ale and sold in the church. The Wiltshire tithe tithes laid, however, a great deal of their share.
The money spent on the beer was expended by the churchwardens in church embroideries, and the unsalted meat provided for the solemn church service to be pilfers of the church seats when, under the influence of the ale, they rolled upon the pavement. The Cambridge townsmen and undergraduates were also very wanted "supporting themselves and showed their love for their university when they were drinking it. Even as recently as 1827 colleges in the Strand were withdrawn as guests and public houses were erected for one half at Twickenham, midway between Derby and Nottingham. A story that could be spread at will seemed to describe the commercial interior of the church from the common custom of the tavern.—Chambers' Journal.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked liveoaks extent their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see th climbing vines running riot in the trees see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Jan. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colby attended divine service at the Baptist church in Daytona on Sunday morning.

The ladies of the V. I. A. gave an invitation to the gentlemen to be present at their rooms on Friday evening last, where a very pleasant entertainment was provided. The piano solos by Miss Ethel Francis, Miss Bessie Sawyer and Miss Margaret Shaw were well rendered and highly appreciated by all present as was also the violin duet by Master Allen Shaw and Miss Margaret Shaw. Miss Emma Griffin, one of our winter tourists, gave a fine selection, "The Spire of St. Michael," showing great talent as an elocutionist. A fine collation was then served, consisting of all good things such as the ladies of Ormond know how to provide. Rev G. A. Waldron officiated as toast master. The toasts for the evening were: "Women in the Church," responded to by Dr. Huntington of Springfield, Mass.; "Women in Politics," by Macon Thornton, was well received; "Women in the Club," by John Adams Riley, was much appreciated; "Woman in Business," H. B. Shaw; "Woman in the Home," James Carnell; "Woman of Ormond," Prof. C. E. Orth. One happy episode of the evening was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. James Carnell, who received the congratulations of their many friends upon the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Carleton and Mrs. Prescott, mother and aunt of G. A Carleton, have arrived. They were here two winters ago and are glad to get back to the sunny South.

George Moore is about to open up the Granada hotel. Glad to see its open doors again.

Frank Colby has a lemon tree (the ponderosa) which he set in a tub one year ago and which is now in full bloom. He will be pleased to show it to any of our tourists as it is quite a novelty for this time of year.

Beer Money and Churches.

In the eighteenth century there were no temperance societies or bands of hope, nor Rechabites and blue ribbon army. To be as "drunk as a lord" was the height of human felicity. It was the age of "three bottle men," of convivial toasts, of drinking songs. Even the church indirectly encouraged intemperance. There were certain districts where at Whitsuntide the churchwardens were accustomed to levy contributions of malt from the parishioners. This was brewed into strong ale and sold in the church. The Whitsuntide topers had, however, a pious method in their madness.

The money spent on the beer was expended by the churchwardens in church maintenance, and the muddled roisterers no doubt believed themselves to be pillars of the church even when, under the influence of the alcohol, they rolled upon its pavement. They thought themselves supporters of the church when they wanted "supporting" themselves and deemed themselves most saintly when they were most soddened. Until as recently as 1827 (when the license was withdrawn) a church and public house were covered by one roof at Deepdale, midway between Derby and Nottingham. A door that could be opened at will served to separate the consecrated interior of the church from the common taproom of the tavern!—Chambers' Journal.

The Bloom on the Egg.

"I threw three eggs of beef extract," said the young housewife, "as I took them from the basket a white bloom, like the down of a peach, came off on my hands."

Her husband, a food expert, gave a meaning laugh.

"In that case," he said, "I'll forego my usual morning omelette. That bloom, my dear, proves your eggs to be a year or so old, maybe four or five years old.

"The bloom, as you so poetically call it, is lime dust. It shows that the eggs are pickled. Lime dust, which rubs off like dust in the surest test we have for pickled eggs a not unwholesome article, but not to be compared with the new laid sort."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Bloom on the Egg.

"I know these eggs at least are fresh," said the young housewife. "As I took them from the basket a white bloom, like the down of a peach, came off on my hands."

Her husband, a food expert, gave a sneering laugh.

"In that case," he said, "I'll forego my usual morning omelette. That bloom, my dear, proves your eggs to be a year or so old—maybe four or five years old.

"The bloom, as you so poetically call it, is lime dust. It shows that the eggs are pickled. Lime dust, which rubs off like flour, is the surest test we have for pickled eggs—a not unwholesome article, but not to be compared with the new laid sort."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
